Nada Giuseppe Dolcetto d'Alba DOC 2020

SKU 427647 | 12x750 ml | Spec | $19.99 Wholesale

This Dolcetto hails from a steep hillside in the commune of Treiso, in the heart of Barbaresco--prized terroir where Nebbiolo is king and home to some of the very best Dolcettos in the world. The Nada family farms their six hectare holding entirely by hand. All the fruit for the Dolcetto comes from the Marcarini parcel, in the middle of the hill.

The three towns of what is now a DOCG are Treiso, Neive, and Barbaresco. They form a triangle: Barbaresco in the west, Neive in the east, and Treiso—the smallest in acreage and highest in elevation—in the south. Innately, Barbaresco and Treiso lean toward elegance while Neive can pack more power and structure.

Tasting Note

Bright ruby red in color with deep purplish hues, this delicious Dolcetto is all about freshness, fragrance and purity. Raised entirely in steel to preserve freshness, this displays lovely aromas and flavors of rose petal, cherry and plum with subtle earthy spice. It is one to enjoy on its own or with light dishes, cured meats and cheeses.

Winery Information

Located in Treiso, the Nada Giuseppe property, now farmed by Enrico Nada, has two main cru sites. Casot is a south and southeast-facing plot with layers of blue and grey tufo soils between sand. The estate comprises 9 hectares of vines, much of which was bought from the grandfather of Angelo Gaja. The Casot vineyards are adjacent to those that are used in Gaja's Barbaresco. The Nada Family has been making wine here since the 1960s. Farming at this estate is certified organic since 2017.
